TELEGRAPHIC

From our "Postscript" of yesterday.

The Copperhead Riot in New York City.

NEW YORK, 13th—6 P. M.

It appears that it must have been a concerted plan of resistance to the conscription, as all the workmen on the different railroads combined with those of certain factions and marched to the building on Third Avenue, where the drafting for the 9th district had commenced.

At about 10:30 a. m., the crowd rushed in and seized the books and papers, using great violence towards the officers and reporters present, who managed to escape, except Assistant Deputy Vanderpool, who was beaten beyond recovery.

Soon after the building was burned, the mob meanwhile stoning the upper part of the building, where some half a dozen families lived.

The next building took fire and was destroyed.

Women were also with the mob, inciting them on.

All the House cars were stopped and the drivers taken off by the crowd.

The police were overpowered and beaten horridly.

A Blacksmith's shop was also demolished and its owner nearly killed.

A detachment of 75 of the Provost Guard, arrived at noon, and drew up in line between 44th and 45th streets, on Third Avenue, but were quickly surrounded by the intensely excited mob, who stoned and jeered them. The soldiers fired into the ruffians, when they were set upon and driven off, and pursued about a mile.

One soldier was caught and actually beaten to death by both men and women fiends. Another was nearly torn to pieces, thrown over a precipice and his body stoned until half buried. Soon after a squad of police arrived but were driven off, one of their number being torn to pieces and kicked to jelly. Stores in the vicinity were soon closed by their owners and the rioters had everything their own way.

The firemen were not allowed to put the fires out, and the most horrible and beastly outrages have been perpetrated. Some twelve or thirteen persons have been so brutally treated that recovery is almost hopeless. Superintendant Kennedy was killed by the mob.

At about 8 o'clock the mob had moved farther down town, when the firemen went to work in burning buildings.

In 3d Avenue one house was entered where a lady had just been confined, and a number of articles stolen, but no violence was perpetrated

A Mr. Harvard, late city editor of the N. Y. Times, was attacked by the mob, howling "He is an abolitionist," and were about to hang him to a lamp post, when the mob's attention was diverted and he ran for life, the crowd chasing him and striking him on the the back and head and face with heavy paving stones, stunning him, when they robbed him of his watch and chain, a diamond breast pin, and $85. He was with difficulty taken to the engine house, the doors of which resisted the mob, and finally he was taken away. His injuries are serious

The mob tore up iron fences to arm themselves

At about 3 p. m. the procession of ruffians, thieves and women, with clubs, pistols, bars of iron, &c, marched up First Avenue, threatening all connected with the conscription.

The arsenal was threatened, but the presence of a detachment of the 10th volunteers, prevented attack. Howitzers are stationed there, and at the 7th regiment's armory, loaded with canister, which will be used on the first demonstration

A whole block on Third Avenue was burned.

A person named Andrews, of Virginia, who has lately harangued meetings at the Cooper Institute, seemed to be the leader of the mob, and addressed them near the ruins, while the destruction of the buildings was going on, denouncing the President, and advised the people to organize and resist the draft.

The howling devils, after this harangue, proceeded to a large and beautiful dwelling on the corner of 47th street and Lexington avenue, which was completely sacked, breaking glass, sofas, chairs, &c., throwing them into the street. They then set fire to the building, amid horrible yells, and burned it down.

In the 8th district the Marshal adjourned the draft until to-morrow.

A detachment of 100 regulars arrived about 8 o'clock and reported to Provost Marshal Newgent, and went to the arsenal, the excitement around which is great. At 4 P M. some 8000 of the armed mob marched down Fifth Avenue, groaning for the conscription.

Governor Seymour will probably arrive here this evening.

Mayor Opdyke has issued a proclamation against rioters, stating that order shall be preserved.

Measures are being taken by Gen Wool which will probably prove effectual in quelling the rioters.

Every negro who has been seen by the mob has been either murdered or horridly beaten — Some 20 thus far have been killed.

One or two newspapers have been threatened. Citizens are arming.

The colored orphan asylum has been destroyed by the mob.

Allerton's Hotel at Bull Head, was burned by the mob, now passing down the 2d Avenue.

Some one in the armory fired on them from windows, when they set fire to the building which was destroyed.

NEW YORK, 13th.

The evening papers contain calls of General Sanford for all the reserve military to meet at the armory of the 7th Regiment for immediate service.

[Evening Despatches to the Times.]

Later News from the Riot in New York—An Attack on the Tribune Office—Police Succeed in Dispersing the Rioters—A Riot IN Boston—Later from New York—The outbreak Renewed this Morning.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., 14th.

The morning train from New York arrived here about 1 p. m., by which we have morning papers. The Tribune says—

About 8 o'clock in the evening an excited mob in Printing House Square commenced shouting and groaning, and soon afterwards a large number of persons, in the crowd armed themselves with missiles at a pile of bricks in the neighborhood, and hurled them at the windows of the Tribune office.

When the lower windows were demolished, there was a rush made for the interior of the counting room. Papers were seized and scattered about the streets, and a match was then applied to a lot of paper inside the counter.

At this instant a strong police force came upon the full run across the Park, scattering them and all was quiet.

It also contains the following additional facts to those received last night.

At 4.50 p. m., the gun factory, corner of 2 st, 5th and 2d Avenue, was destroyed.

At 5:12, the mob arrived at the office of Capt Mounters, Assistant Provost Marshal, between 28th and 29th streets, and burned the whole block.

They next attacked, the colored orphan asylum. The firemen were on hand and made tardy effort to do their duty.

When Chief Engineer Decker sent to have the bells rung, the messenger found he could not communicate with headquarters owing to the fact of the wires having been cut by the mob.

They visited houses adjacent with hatchets in their hands, destroying costly furniture.

One house opposite the asylum was attacked. The rioters would give no chance to save the poor little children.

One brute threw a chair from one of the upper windows and killed a little white girl who was trying to save some articles of value that were strewn upon the ground.

The building was fired eight times before the scoundrels ultimately succeeded in destroying it

Other fires occurred, but owing to the imperfect working of the telegraph, not even an intimation of their whereabouts could be obtained.

A demonstration was made in front of Mayor Opdyke's house, but the mob were addressed by Judge Barnard and Coroner Wilcey, and they left.

The value of property destroyed is estimated at $250,000.

In the evening a large body of Irishmen and women of the lowest class, tore up a large portion of the track of the 4th Avenue Railroad.

The Tribune says the men who set on the howling mob of yesterday, Monday, July 13, 1863, are guilty of aggravated assault and battery, of grand larceny, of criminally resisting the execution of the laws, with armed violence, of treason, of insurrection, of arson, and of murder.

The Times gives the following casualties:

Officer Sweeney, 29th Precinct, struck in the head and badly cut, officer Haldane, 29th, cut in the head seriously, officer Morrison, dangerously wounded; Chas B Law, seriously; V McCarthy, not expected to live; Nolen Walsh, badly cut, Sutherland, seriously cut and bruised.

At 2 o'clock this morning, the city was apparently quiet.

A heavy rain fell about midnight, which helped greatly to disperse the rioters.

The preparations to meet the outbreak to-day, if renewed, we are assured are such as will prevent the occurrence of such scenes as were enacted yesterday.

The rioters had it pretty much their own way yesterday, but if they resume their demonstrations to-day a good share of them will come to a bloody and well deserved end of their career

Gen. Wool called on the veteran volunteers to report to Major Gen Sandford, on Tuesday, July 14th, at 10 A M.

The National Zouaves, 8th and 9th regiments, and U S troops in the city, have been ordered out. Telegrams have been sent to various forts and rendezvous of soldiers for aid.

All the marines in the barracks and some troops from Governors Island are distributed in proper order in the city.

Mayor Opdyke has called for volunteers and policemen to help put down the mob.

NEW HAVEN, 14th.

The superintendent of the New York & New Haven railroad has stopped the moving of trains out of New York. The last train over that road left there at 11 this a. m. Trains from this city will run only as far as Harlem river.

BOSTON, 14th

A riot suddenly developed itself about 1 p m to day, in the vicinity of Endicott street, North End. It commenced by an attack on a man employed by the Provost Marshal to notify persons who had been drafted.

A strong police force is now attempting to quell the outbreak.

A despatch from New York, dated to-day says the Mayor's house has been sacked by the rioters, and he is at the St Nicholas Hotel and with Gov Seymour. Two hundred troops are in the Park barracks waiting for orders.

The military fired on a mob in Broome street, killing fifteen persons.

A meeting of the merchants will be called this evening.

1 p. m.—The alarm bell is now ringing in the 1st and 2d districts.

About the Draft.

The following rules in regard to drafted men, have been adopted in the 2d District, as we learn from the Lewiston Journal, and we presume they will be uniform in the State:

Blank forms can be obtained at the offices of the various drafting officers, by those desirous of presenting in a legal way their claims to be exempt from the draft. For instance, if a person drafted is the son of a widow or of aged or infirm parent or parents dependent upon him for support, he is required to obtain, in addition to his own certificate, the affidavit of two respectable citizens of his place of residence, to the facts in the case. But the claim will only be effectual where the labor of the person claiming exemption is actually necessary for the support of the person dependent upon him. The exemption does not apply in case where there is sufficient property to yield support, and the necessary business for collecting the income can be transacted by agents, trustees or the like.— The same certificate and affidavits are required in case of a parent electing to have one of two sons upon whose labor he or she is dependent for support, exempted from the draft. The first certificate must be signed by the parent making the election. So also in case of an only brother of a child or children under 12 years of age, dependent upon him for support. If two members of a family are already in the military service of the United States, the exemption is only intended to apply where the members claiming it reside in the same family. If any of the members reside elsewhere, and have gone into the military service of the United States, no exemption on that account can be claimed.

The father of a motherless child under 12 years of age is exempt if his labor is required for his or her support. Persons under twenty, or over thirty-five years of age and married, or over forty-five years of age, are required to obtain the certificate of a parent or of two respectable persons, heads of families, resident in the same town, county or district, in order to obtain exemption.

All persons who may be drafted, and who desire to present substitutes, must give notice in writing to the Board of Enrolment, that on such a day they will present a substitute, giving his name, residence and age, and stating whether he is an alien or citizen. All the Collectors of Internal Revenue have been authorized by the Secretary of War, and directed by the Secretary of the Treasury, to receive from drafted persons who desire to pay it, the sum of $300, in commutation of service.

All drafted persons, who present substitutes, will receive a certificate exempting them from any farther draft during the time for which the substitute is mustered into the service (three years). The State pays each drafted man who enters the service and, each substitute a bounty of $100, aiding thus much in procuring a substitute. If the $300 commutation is paid, it exempts only till another draft is ordered.

EXTRAORDINARY MORTALITY. A correspondent gives the following melancholy facts:

Died at Winter Harbor, in the town of Gouldsboro, May 5, Mrs Harriet E Newman, aged 21 years, 4 months; May 28d, her husband, Simeon A Newman, aged 21 years, 3 months; May 26, a brother, Elisha B Newman, aged 16 years, 6 months; June 3, a sister, Mrs Vienna E Joy, aged 22 years, 4 months; June 12, an infant son of the latter, aged 5 days; all of diptheria.

From Winter Harbor, with its 276 inhabitants, death took his recruit each week, from October till June, 36 in all. Thirteen per cent of the people in eight months time. One family lost five, one lost four, eight lost two each, and eleven lost one each. Twenty-one families bereaved of their numbers—scarcely one unbereaved of their kindred.—Portland Transcript.

VALUE OF VICKSBURG. In an article upon the vast importance to the Union cause of the capture of Vicksburg, the Tribune says:

But the grand results of this magnificent success are not cannon or prisoners, not the possession of the town, not even the temporary control of the Mississippi, which rebel Vicksburg presumed to dispute. It is, of course, true that the fall of this stronghold practically opens the river throughout its length; Port Hudson inevitably falling as the corollary to Pemberton's proposition to surrender.

Still, the decisive advantages of the success are not commercial nor prospective, but military, and ready to be reaped by continuous and instant energy

At such a moment as this, when Meade is pressing hard the fleeing troops of Lee, and when Rosecrans is driving Bragg's divided army, the immediate value of Grant's victory is that it liberates his forces to join in the grand campaign which is sweeping the rebellion into the ocean and the Gulf. Five States remain, and only five to be subdued—Alabama, Georgia, South Carolina, North Carolina, and Virginia; and even of these not more than three are heartily subject to Jefferson Davis's sway. Georgia is for disunion, but only half devoted to the Confederacy. North Carolina is waiting the moment which shall deliver her from a hated tyranny, and restore her troops to a soil which they have not been trusted to defend. Florida is not worth considering. Mississippi has still a force under Johnston within her borders, but Johnston will fight no battle for the possession of the State He hopes, if he hopes anything, to check our advance either on Mobile, Atlanta, or Chattanooga, on one or all of which three points the Army of the Mississippi will advance as soon as Port Hudson falls. Possibly General Grant may deem himself strong enough to garrison Vicksburg, detach a sufficient force to the relief of Banks, and with the remainder of his army enter at once on his new campaign. In either event he will be in time to co-operate with Rosecrans, and must sooner or later unite with him, unless that commander shall leave to Grant the whole of the Gulf campaign, and move northward through East Tennessee to North Carolina, fling himself on the flank of whatever rebel force may succeed in escaping from Virginia. The surrender of Vicksburg puts the issue in either case beyond a doubt.

A Rochester paper gives the particulars of a singular case which occured in Ovid, Seneca County, N Y. A young man named Barry died last week, having been accidentally shot a few weeks previously, by a young lady carelessly handling a pistol. The ball entered on the side of the nose, passing upward, and was supposed by the physician to be lodged over the eye, near the brain, and it was at one time expected or hoped it would pass out inwardly through the nostril and mouth, as indicated by frequent spitting of blood. It did not, however, and after death was found back of the head, traced along where for a finger's length or more it had left its mark on the brain; yet the lad was scarcely knocked down, was seemingly quite well during most of the time, and never out of his senses, and ate a hearty meal an hour before he died.

GREAT SALE OF

PINE TIMBER LANDS.

THE ST. MARY'S FALLS SHIP CANAL COMPANY will offer at public auction, in the city of Detroit, on the second day of September next, of Pine Timber Lands, lying in the State of Michigan, which were selected with great care nearly ten years since. It is estimated by good judges that these lands comprise at least one half of all the pine timber lands in the State, which are equal to them in quality and position.

525,000 ACRES

The facilities which Michigan affords for manufacturing and transporting lumber are so great, the consumption is so large, and the area of pine timber lands between the Alleghanies and the Rocky Mountains is so small, that the value of these lands must yearly advance in a constantly increasing ratio.

For the purpose of the sale the lands have been arranged into a large number of groups, with a minimum price affixed upon each group at an average of about $2.10 per acre, so that the inducement to purchase is not only very great to lumbermen, but also to others who may be seeking to make safe and profitable investments.

The Stock of the Company will be received at par in payment of purchases made at the sale to an amount equal to 9½ per cent. of the whole purchase money; the remainder, 91 per cent., to be paid in cash.

UNION NOMINATION.

FOR GOVERNOR.

SAMUEL CONY.

The radical papers have suddenly discovered that it is not easy to "bag" an army. They used to speak of it as the simplest thing in the world, and to blame a general who failed to do it.—Boston Post.

The copperhead papers are as brassy as they are traitorous. Who has been hammering away at the Government ever since the war began for not "bagging" all the rebel armies and ending up the war in a fortnight? Not the "radical" papers exclusively, we believe.

The English aristocracy are going ahead with their statue to Stonewall Jackson. It is to be of marble, to cost $6000, and to be sent to Richmond to be placed in the Confederate capitol.—Boston Post.

It is fitting and proper that the oppressors of the people in Europe should thus testify their sympathy with the cause of slavery and despotism in this country. It is the cause of tyrants against the people, and represents the fight between oppression and liberty through the world. This haughty English aristocracy had better be preparing their own manse sum.

A Testimonial to Colonel Appleton.

We received the following from Port Hudson, last evening, and comply, with much gratification, with a request to publish:

Headquarters 12th Reg. Me. Vols.,
Before Port Hudson, June 24.

At a meeting of the officers of this regiment, held this day, Colonel W K Kimball, commanding Second Brigade, was chosen Chairman, and Adjutant W W Deane, A. A. A. G., Second Brigade, Secretary.

A committee of three was chosen to report resolutions expressive of the sense of the meeting upon the departure of Captain John F. Appleton, to assume command of the 6th Regiment of Infantry, Corps D'Afrique.

Lieutenant Colonel Illsley, Captain M M Robinson, and Lieutenant B A Bray, were chosen as that committee. They reported the following resolution which was unanimously adopted:

Whereas, Captain John F. Appleton, Company H, is detached from this regiment to assume command of the 6th regiment of Infantry, Corps D'Afrique, therefore

Resolved, That while we fully appreciate the advantage gained by the general service in the transfer of Captain Appleton from a subordinate to a more important command, we regret the loss sustained by the 12th Maine Regiment Volunteers, in the services of so brave, faithful, and gallant an officer, and we also regret our personal loss in the companionship of an accomplished gentleman, and a faithful friend. May success attend him.

Major G A Hastings was chosen a committee to present to Captain Appleton the proceedings of this meeting.

The Love and Treatment of Horses—A Model Stable:

AUGUSTA, July 11th, 1863.

Mr. Editor:

A deservedly noticeable instance of the march of improvement, even in the present times of trouble and anxiety, is exemplified in the recent construction by Col. Geo. W. Ricker, of this city, of a model livery and sales stable, which is creditable to his reputation as a sensible, enterprising and humane man. Col. Ricker is well known throughout the State as the former popular proprietor of the Stanley House, now kept by Mr. Charles Sawyer, a worthy successor. No other man in the State of Col. Ricker's age has bought and sold so many good horses, and hence none should better understand the wants of this noble animal, and the interests of his owner in this relation. He is one of the few proprietors of extensive livery establishments who are utterly opposed to the letting of horses upon the Sabbath, believing them to be as much entitled to the rest of one day in seven, enjoined by Scripture, as are their masters, and considering that class of persons who practice fast driving on Sunday, as really undeserving of confidence, so far at least as respects their care and treatment of horses. To quote his emphatic language—"there is no money in letting horses upon the Sabbath."

This new stable is of brick, fronting on Market Square, near the site of the old Kennebec House, and is of the following dimensions: Length, 107 feet; width 76 feet, and 3 stories high, including basement, the first and second stories being accessible from the street. The height in clear from each floor is, 1st story 10 feet; 2d story 11 feet; 3d story 10 feet. The heavy beams for the first floor are trussed, which trussing also supports the roof, relieving the walls of weight, and avoiding the necessity and incumbrance of posts on the 2d floor, under the beams. The front half of the 1st story, (basement), is for storing carriages not in frequent use, and has a capacious cistern for rain water. The rear which is separated from the front by a substantial wall of brick and stone is intended for the manure cellar. In the 2d story, which is level with the railroad and the ascending street in front, the entire area of 107 by 61 feet is equally divided by a double partition up to the roof, plastered and ceiled, the front half 58½ by 61 feet, being for carriages in use, an office and business generally. The carriage room is sufficiently large for a four horse team to turn round in conveniently. The rear half will comfortably accommodate about fifty horses. The walls of the stable are double, all having a dead air space in their whole extent, to prevent the frost from penetrating, and to afford the most complete ventilation for the horses—to perfect which apertures some eight inches square near the second floor, are left in the outside walls of the horses' apartment at intervals of some five feet, and similar ones to the number of thirty in the inside walls, about nine feet from the floor on these sides, while on the outside, at the eaves, about the same number of holes are made as at the bottom. The advantages of this system of ventilating are, that no draft of current of cold air is let in upon the horses, while the upward current of air, constantly ascending through the first and second tiers of apertures, carries off entirely all the ammonia and foul air unavoidably generated by a stable full of horses. The floors of the stalls are level, the rear half laid with rock maple slats four inches wide, leaving a space of ⅛ of an inch between them. No racks for feeding are allowed, but permanent boxes are built with cast iron bottoms, and cast and wrought iron protectors for the edges. The tops of the sides of the stalls are protected in the same manner as the edges of the feed boxes. It has been satisfactorily demonstrated that horses are injured by standing on stall floors built upon an inclined plane, however slight the inclination, and that the filling up of a rack with hay from a room above often results in getting chaff and hay-seed into the horses eyes, inflicting permanent injury, and also that the reaching up of a horse to the rack for his food is unnatural and inconvenient.

An abundant supply of excellent spring water is introduced upon the 2d and 3d floors for the convenience of the animals, and for the cleansing of carriages and harnesses, which are washed upon a water tight platform in the front room of the 2d story, from which the water runs through grooves into a drain in the basement.

The third floor, like the second, is divided into two parts, that part over the horses being used for hay and grain, and the front for sleeping rooms for the hostlers, harnesses and robe rooms, &c. The building is constructed in the most thorough and durable manner possible.

Col Ricker has had rare success in keeping his horses healthy—having never lost one by disease. He attributes this result in no small degree to the free use of salt by his horses, who have constant access to it at all times in the stable, and it is in his opinion a more certain preventive of disease in most of its various phases than anything else. Dieting is prescribed at once for those evincing symptoms of illness with such careful attention to keeping up the circulation as may be required. Alcoholic liquors, as well as liniments and all other preparations of that class, are banished entirely from his stalls, he making use of cold water most liberally for external application, and occasionally a wash of arnica.

Very truly, JOHN SMITH.

DEATH OF A BANGOR SOLDIER. Intelligence has been received of the death of Oscar Wyer, a member of the 20th Maine, (formerly of the 2d,) a son of Mr. Robert Wyer, of this city—he was killed at Gettysburg in the battle of the 2d inst., being shot through the abdomen with a rifle ball. He was a brave soldier, and universally loved and respected by his comrades. He was buried on the field.

IMPORTANT TO DRAFTED MEN CLAIMING EXEMPTION. No application for exemption will be entertained by the Board of Enrolment until after the Draft is completed, and persons drawn are notified to report for duty.

Certificates of Surgeons will not be received as evidence unless sworn to.

Each person claiming exemption should come prepared with all the evidence he intends to present to the Board of Enrolment, so that the decision in his case may be made final at the personal examination.

SOMETHING BURNING. The Portland Press has the following hard thing on a policeman:

Friday night two gentlemen standing on the corner of Middle and India Streets observed a globe of fire approaching them on the latter street. Very soon a policeman came along and asked them if they did not smell the smoke of something burning. They replied that they did, and pointed to the side of his coat, where a very large place had been burnt out, and the fire was still making progress. It appears that the officer, when he left the station house, placed his pipe in his coat pocket.

☞ The Maine Unitarian Association, at its recent session in Farmington, passed the following resolutions:

Whereas, In the present momentous crisis in the affairs of our country, when not merely the precious legacy of liberty and self-government bequeathed by our fathers is in peril, but even our national existence, the members of this Convention do not wish to have their sentiments doubtful, nor their position liable to be misunderstood, therefore

Resolved, That it is the duty of Christians "not only for wrath but also for conscience sake," to yield a ready and cheerful obedience to the powers that be as to powers ordained of God.

Resolved, That not as partisans, but as patriots, not as sectarians, but as Christians, we pledge our aid and co-operation to the Government of the United States and its regularly constituted authorities in maintaining the cause of the Union, and in suppressing the unholy and causeless rebellion.

F. M. Sabine, Esq., of this city, was elected President of the Association.

A sermon was preached by Rev. Mr. Everett of this city.

☞ We should be glad to accommodate our friend at North Searsport by publishing the extract which he sends, but we have not a column in our paper to spare.

☞ Hay is a scarce article in the market, and the prospect for a large crop not promising. It now commands $16 a ton, and the price increases daily.—Portland Adv.

☞ The steamer Eastern Queen, on the Kennebec route, is now heavily armed, as we learn from the Gardiner Journal. The Katahdin, if not already armed, will soon be, and we presume all our sea going steamers will follow the example. All valuable sailing vessels should also procure guns enough to keep off the smaller class of privateers.

☞ Major General Anderson, of Fort Sumter memory, is spending the season at Bridgeport, Conn. His health is much impaired, and he is forbidden by his physician to speak in public.

☞ The whole number of persons enrolled in the 1st class in the 2d District (Androscoggin, Sagadahoc, &c.,) is 8,823.

☞ The only Chinaman in the army was killed at Gettysburg. He was called John Tommy, and was attached to the 1st Excelsior regiment.

☞ Let those who wish to see bright stars in the darkest night, look at the American flag, says Prentice.

☞ It is said that the seat of government of Mississippi was removed in a carpet-bag.

☞ The Providence Journal says a "Lucky Cuss," in the modern interpretation, means a man who got enrolled in two districts and drafted in both. There are two or three such cases.

☞ A man was beaten to death by his business partner in New York on Monday night because of a disagreement upon a question of trade. The murdered man was found in a water closet, whither he had gone to die.

☞ The Springfield Republican says the draft is becoming the absorbing topic with young men, and mutual insurance clubs, in which half a dozen expectants agree to pay the exemption fee for those of their number that are drafted, are springing up with great rapidity.

There are some such associations found here. We would suggest to all such, that it will be far better to procure substitutes than to pay the commutation, even if it should cost more.

☞ Lieut. Read, formerly of the Tacony, has written a letter from Fort Preble to his friend, Lieut. Babbott, confined in Fort Lafayette, in which he gives an account of his experience from the time he ran the blockade of Mobile Bay in the Florida, until his unsuccessful raid into Portland harbor. He describes the latter movement as follows—

It was my intention when I came into Portland to cut out a sea going steamer, but strange to say, at the decisive moment, Mr. Brown, whom you will remember in connection with the breaking down of the Arkansas engine, declared himself incompetent to work the engines of the steamer unless he had another engineer to co-operate with him. All my plans were then crushed, and I was compelled to take the cutter out as a dernier resort.

If there had been a breeze, we should have been far out to sea before daylight, having committed considerable destruction in the harbor of Portland.

We have been kindly treated by our captors. I expect we will either be sent to New York or Boston in a few days, as they have commenced exchanging again. I hope we may be sent into Dixie before long.

ARMING OF MERCHANT SHIPS. We are gratified to see that the following resolution has been passed by the Portland Board of Trade. The measure which it contemplates is one that we have long desired to see adopted:

Resolved, That we recommend all ship owners to place on board their vessels such armament and additional crew as will protect them against the attack of the small piratical cruisers which infest the seas; and we recommend our Insurance Companies to encourage such arming of merchant vessels, by discriminating rates of insurance.

THE DRAFT commenced at Augusta yesterday, and progressed without difficulty. The number to be drafted from that District is 2409. Among the names we notice Hon. James G. Blaine, Member of Congress for the District; "John Smith," correspondent of the Whig, Chas. A. Pierce, periodical dealer; Geo H. Fairfield, Daniel T. Turner, Chas H. Barton and Rob't B. Johnson, printers; and Joseph W. Clapp, clerk in K. & P. R. R. Office.

LARGE SALE
[illegible]
On Thomas' Hill,
☞ AT AUCTION!
J. B. FOSTER, Auctioneer.

On Wednesday, July 15th, 1863,

I SHALL SELL, all the Lots now unsold, on the Southerly side of James Street (as per Plan of Lots made for J. W. Low, Esq., and recorded in the Penobscot Registry of Deeds, book 3, page 77)—beginning with Lot No. 1, adjoining the residence of Mrs Bailey, on Union Street.

Lots No. 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5, front on James Street, and run back 100 feet, to an alley 16 feet wide. Lot No. 1, is 100 feet on James by 100 feet on Union St. Lots 2, 3, 4, and 5, are 77 by 100 feet. Lots 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, and 13, are on the Easterly side of Thomas Street—and all but No. 13, are 75 by 18 feet. No. 13, has a front of about 260 feet on James Street—and on Ohio Street about 300 feet, and adjoins the premises of Horatio Fitcher, Esq.

To a resident of the city, these Lots need no commendation. The stranger has only to examine, to admire them. There is no locality in the city that offers so many attractions for residences as Thomas' Hill. Already, two of the most elegant mansions in the city have been erected there; and it cannot be long before all the vacant Lots will be taken up and occupied. These Lots combine the advantage of convenient proximity to the city with the retirement of the country. The view from Thomas' Hill is beautiful and grand beyond description.

This sale offers a rare opportunity to any one desirous of securing a desirable location for building, and to the speculator who wants to invest where he can be sure of a profit.

The sale will be positive. One-quarter of the purchase money to be paid down, the balance on any time to suit the convenience of the purchaser—not exceeding four years—with interest.

A Plan of the Lots can be seen, by calling upon the Auctioneer, or upon J. W. LOW.

NEW HAVEN, 14th.

The New York Evening Post has just been received here by steamer. It contains the following:—

The [illegible] of yesterday was renewed [illegible] hour this morning in the upper part [illegible]

[illegible] the rioters visited the large manufacturing establishments, and compelled the [illegible] to fall into their ranks.

[illegible] gangs forbade the loading of vessels at [illegible] under penalty of the destruction of [illegible]

[illegible] the order of the day. Several houses [illegible] sacked.

[illegible] conflagrations are occurring, and the [illegible] which was hourly increasing up to noon, [illegible] more serious work during the remainder of the day.

The greatest crowd this forenoon assembled at an early hour in 3d avenue, between 30th and [illegible] streets. It is estimated that the number of [illegible] in that part of the city reached 15,000 persons.

The mob extended through the streets on either side of 3d avenue to 2d and 4th avenues. They were principally armed with stones, tho' a [illegible] guns taken from Mr Opdyke's armory.

At 10 a. m. a body of 250 policemen under Inspector Carpenter were assailed with bricks and paving stones, while passing through 2d avenue.

The policemen, upon the word, charged upon [illegible] tenement house between 30th and 31st streets, amid showers of stones, entered the building and ejected the mob. The building was [illegible] fire, but the flames were extinguished.

[illegible] Street at about 9 A. M., one company [illegible] Marines, one company fire Zouaves, [illegible] Regiment of volunteers and a company of the 11th Regulars, together with a company of artillery men with two pieces of ordnance, arrived on the ground where the rioters had assembled in great force.

Colonel Obrien had charge of the troops and marched his command through the crowd down 2d Avenue. He ordered the rioters to disperse, and repeatedly fired his revolver upon them, wounding two of them. As the crowd [illegible], two howitzers were placed in position at the corner of 30th Street, when three rounds of blank cartridges were fired. The mob dispersed, but soon reassembled in small crowds, and incensed at the attack of troops, incoherent as it was threatened to resume their riotous proceedings. Many proceeded to their homes to procure fire-arms, with which they threatened loudly to over-power troops.

At 10 30 A. M., as a company of U. S. Infantry from the forts were marching through Pitts Street under command of Lieut. Wood, they were assailed with volleys of bricks and stones. Having been ordered to disperse the mob at all hazards, they fired on the crowd, and several are said to have been killed.

At 12 M., a large body of men assembled with violent demonstrations, in front of the Tribune building, and a company of Infantry appearing at that moment the rioters quickly dispersed.

Gov. Seymour shortly afterwards addressed the mob from the steps of the City Hall.

The first of his remarks was that he had sent to Washington with a request that Government should suspend the draft, and that he desired to protect the people, and that he implored the crowd therefore, to respect the right of persons and of property, promising them he would see every thing made satisfactory.

The Second, Third and Sixth Avenue cars are stopped, the men employed being compelled to stop work by the threats of the rioters.

The mail train on the Hudson railroad, due at New York at 10:30 was stopped at 52d street to see if any soldiers were on board. None being found the train was suffered to proceed. Subsequently a mob of 2000 persons proceeded to Hudson river R. R. depot and threatened to destroy it. A body of infantry and a battery of artillery were sent there.

A soap chandlers establishment on 6th street, between Ninth and Tenth Avenues was completely gutted.

The jewelry stores on Broadway were closed this forenoon. The stores on the principal thoroughfares, where crowds were assembling, were also closed.

The residence of Mr. Wakeman, Postmaster of New York—86th St., Yorkville—was pillaged and destroyed last night. The rioters stole the furniture, cut the carpets in pieces and divided them among themselves; sacked his library—worth several thousand dollars. They then set the house on fire. Mr. Wakeman's loss was $15,000.

The reserve force of the city regiments assembled at their various armories at noon.

A large force of police and soldiers proceeded to Fifth Avenue, with the intention to disperse the mob. A collision has undoubtedly occurred.

Some houses have been sacked in the 4th and 5th Wards, and some grocery stores destroyed, the mob giving as their reason, that the owners were Black Republicans.

The mails to and from New York and the South, will be, for the present, forwarded from New Haven by the boat.

NEW YORK, 14th—1 a. m.

Bells are now striking alarm, and it is expected the rioters have again commenced their work.

BOSTON, 14th.

Quite a disturbance, but hardly amounting to a riot, occurred in the north part of the city this afternoon. It originated in an assault made on David Howe at a house in Prince Street, where Howe had called to serve notice that the resident had been drafted. Some loafers in the street interfered and beat Mr. Howe severely, when he was rescued by a policeman, but not before he was badly, but not dangerously injured. In the meantime a mob rapidly gathered and a strong force of police was called out.

Bricks and other missiles were thrown, by which the Policemen and Ostrander, Winship, Trask and some others were injured.

The outbreak was speedily quelled, and several arrests made as precautionary against further riotous demonstrations.

A company of Regulars from Fort Independence, will be quartered in the city to-night, and notices have been issued to the 44th and 45th regiments, also to Capt Jones' light battery, and the 1st dragoons, to be in readiness for immediate service if called upon.

The city wears its usual quiet aspect this evening, and no indications of further disturbance.

Our authorities are determined to squelch any outbreak at once.

BOSTON, 14th—8 30 p. m.

A mob has gathered and broken into several gun shops.

Alarm bells are being rung, and military are rapidly gathering.

It is reported that two men were shot.

BOSTON, 14—midnight.

Everything is quiet. The rioters have dispersed, and no further outbreak is anticipated.

Police and military are stationed in different parts of the city.

At the attack on the armory in Cooper Street, one rioter was killed and another fatally wounded. Wm Currier, an aged citizen, who resided on the street, and who was looking on, was also killed. Several were wounded.

A gun store on Dock Square was broken open, but the police rallied, and by the use of their revolvers quickly dispersed the rioters, but not before one or two of the latter were wounded.

NEW YORK, 4th.

The Herald's postscript of this morning, 5 a. m., has the following:

Covetown, Md., 12th,
Via Hagerstown, 13 h,

Hagerstown was occupied at 9 o'clock this morning by Gen Kilpatrick's cavalry, after a slight resistance.

The rebels are in large force near the town, on the Williamsport and Clear Spring road.

Cavalry reconnoissances show that the rebels have a strong picket guard North and West of the town.

The armies of Generals Meade and Lee are within a few hours march of each other.

FORTRESS MONROE, 2th.

Yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock, Lieut Sanborn, who was drilling a colored military company, and while in front of Andrew Foster's dry goods on Main Street, Norfolk, was shot—one ball passing in at the mouth and out behind the ear, and another through his body, entering the left shoulder and passing out at the right. He died in about 15 minutes afterwards.

Dr. Wright of Norfolk is charged with the murder and had a preliminary examination last evening before Provost Marshal, Major Barry.

NEW YORK, 14th.

The markets are unsettled by the riot. Business is completely suspended owing to the riot.

NEAR HAGERSTOWN,
Via Frederick 13th—11:30 a. m.

At about 11 a. m., Clark's battery, of the 4th Pennsylvania regiment, supported by skirmishers, advanced from our centre and opened on the enemy, who replied with 12 rounds of shell.

The skirmishers of the 3d corps were thrown forward, when the rebels opened a heavy fire of musketry. On the third round our boys rushed forward and took the rebel works at the point of the bayonet, and captured 300 prisoners.

The second line of works has not yet been reached.

We lost about 100 killed and wounded.

There is a report that the Federal cavalry has crossed above Williamsport, and is coming down on the Virginia side with artillery, to prevent the enemy from crossing. It is believed they will destroy all the rebel trains going to Winchester and Staunton.

CINCINNATI, 14th.

Morgan's forces crossed Big Miami at Venice last night, and burned the bridge behind them. They passed through Burlington and Spring Lane, and crossed the Hamilton & Dayton Railroad at Glendale, this morning, moving toward Camp Dennis.

It is not known how much damage the rebels have done yet.

Glendale is on the Hamilton & Dayton Railroad.

Telegraph communication is still open with Hamilton.

Morgan's men are reported to be much jaded with their rapid march, and will have to rest soon.

Six of Morgan's men were captured at Milford, Clement county, on Sunday night, and four more at New Boston.

WASHINGTON, 13th.

We have had a copious rain for the past 30 hours.

Railroad communication with Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York is interrupted since yesterday, by the storm.

One of the bridges on the Baltimore & Ohio railroad has been carried away.

No crossing can be made at present at any of the fords of the Potomac.

The news from New York of disturbance there has for the moment absorbed public attention.

Five men of the 103th New York regiment were drowned to-day at Laurel, on the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, an embankment being swept away by the freshet.

NEW YORK, 14th.

A special to the New York Press contains little of importance. No battle has yet been fought between Generals Meade and Lee.

The draft has been suspended in Brooklyn.

PHILADELPHIA, 14th.

The Inquirer of this forenoon has Hagerstown advices of Monday forenoon. They state that last night the rebels drew in their forces at several places, but still show a formidable front on our extreme right and front.

General Kilpatrick holds Hagerstown and our extreme right.

General Cameron arrived from Greencastle this forenoon, bringing news that will be cheering to troops, but which is improper for publication now.

The rebel lines now commence about a mile and a half from Hagerstown, extending to near Downsville, and thence to the Potomac.

VARIOUS ITEMS.

It is said that Pemberton's army had a wholesome fear of the 4th of July, and capitulated in season. Our men would call out at night, that the Fourth would finish them, and it was so arranged. By this, says a letter writer, we have saved thousands of lives. Both armies are gratified with the result. Our men treat them with kindness, giving them coffee, which some of them have not tasted for a year. The city is much dilapidated. Many houses are injured.—The Vicksburg paper of July 2d admits the eating of mule meat and the pilfering of soldiers in private houses. Mrs. Cisco, wife of an officer in the artillery service, was killed in the city.

A horrible tragedy took place at Medina, Ohio, some nights ago. It appears that a gentleman named Coy retired to rest on the evening in question, with his wife and child, and during the night the whole three were murdered, and the house afterwards set on fire. The flames spread with great rapidity, but the neighbors turning out in great numbers, the fire was put out before it could reach the room where the bodies lay. Mr. Coy had been buying sheep very extensively, and was known to keep large sums of money in his house. It was a desire to get the money, doubtless, which prompted the terrible act. The murderer was at large at last accounts, nor had any trace of him been discovered.

A BIG AND ANCIENT HORSE SHOE. The editor of the Skowhegan Clarion has in his office a horse shoe, which weighs 3lbs 2 1-2 oz., is 7 1-2 inches wide and 8 inches long, and the sides are two inches wide. The toe cork is 3 3-4 inches long by one inch wide. It presents the appearance of having been long worn on the foot, and must have weighed nearly five pounds when new. It has the initials of the maker's name, J. K. V. B. upon it, and of English make, at a remote period.

[The horse who wore that shoe must have been worthy to bear to battle the ponderous knight of the Clarion himself.]

A simple mode of obviating fraud is in practice among the Mahajans, or native bankers of India. They merely write the half immediately after the sum drawn; for example, "Twenty-two dollars, the half of which is eleven." Thus the word twenty could not be altered into seventy without necessitating the word eleven being changed into thirty-six which would lead to instant detection.

A dispatch from New York at the Merchants' Exchange states that the schooner Mary Gage, from Boston, was at Baracoa, June 25th, flying the rebel flag.

UNITARIAN CONVENTION. The annual convention of Unitarian Societies in Maine was held at Farmington last week. Francis M. Sabine, Esq., of Bangor was elected President and Rev. J. F. Lovering of Portland, Secretary. Rev. Mr. Everett of Bangor, and Rev. Dr. Sheldon of Waterville, delivered discourses; Miss Merryman, who escaped from Charleston, S. C., recently, gave a narrative of her experience at the South, and various religious subjects were discussed by Rev. Dr. Wheeler, Rev. Mr. Nichols, Rev. Dr. Sheldon, Rev. Mr. Swan, Rev. Mr. Lovering and others. The convention voted to meet again a year from next fall and appointed Rev. Drs. Palfrey and Wheeler and Rev. Mr. Nichols a committee to fix the time and place.—The occasion is spoken of as a pleasant and interesting one.

A SAFE OPERATION. A gentleman was drafted this week who procured a substitute upon the following terms: He is to receive two hundred dollars cash. The gentleman effected an insurance on the substitute's life for one thousand

'A person,' says the Paris Sport, 'who looks at the world in somewhat gloomy colors, recently complained, in M. Auber's presence, how hard it was that people must grow old. "Hard as it is," replied the veteran composer, "it seems to be the only means yet discovered of enjoying long life."'

That was a smart law student, who, when asked by his father how he got along at the examination, replied, "O, well, I answered one question right." "What was that?" inquired the old gentleman with a look of satisfaction.—"They asked me what a qui tam action was."—"That was a bad one, and you answered it correctly, did you?" "Yes, I told them that I didn't know."

HUNNEWELL'S UNIVERSAL COUGH REMEDY

HUNNEWELL'S

UNIVERSAL

[illegible]

BASES its real claims to the confidence of the public by its perfect simplicity, and freedom from every component which in any way places restraint on its use, Day or Night, by Old or Young, but to find the real secret of its true character and results, to which thousands can testify by its being made the Pocket, Bedside or Nursery Companion of all, and the enemy to all Throat and Lung complaints, by using it every hour, if necessary, or when there is the least tickling in the Throat or disposition to Cough. By such freedom of use it

CURES

Coughs,
Colds,
Sore Throat,
Bronchial Complaints,
Hoarseness

and all such, as when neglected, end in

CONSUMPTION!

To Public Speakers and Singers it is most valuable, as it goes to the foundation, clears the Throat, and prevents the prostration which follows great exertion.

As a Soothing Syrup its simplicity calls for special attention, as the most delicate infant may take it with the greatest freedom.

HUNNEWELL'S TOLU ANODYNE

[illegible]

This Preparation, by its splendid results, has shown the great necessity of a true Nervous and Spasmodic Remedy, which goes to its work on all such complaints, completely relieving the pains and leaving no stain of debility behind.

As most complaints of this nature proceed from inward causes, they are reached only through the stomach, and in most of them, time and money is wasted by the use of Liniments and Lotions.

Let this preparation be fairly tested and it will be found worthy the name and fame of a true

ANODYNE!

IT CURES

Neuralgia,
Rheumatism,
Gout,
Tooth Ache,
Ear Ache,
Nervous Head Ache,
Distress after eating,
Fits,
Histeria,
Nervousness,
Spinal Complaint
St. Vitus Dance,
Cholera Morbus,
Pains in Stomach and Bowels.

also, the chief of all causes of disease and insanity

LOSS OF SLEEP!

☞ To the Sleepless Invalid it gives the most refreshing sleep.

To Females, suffering the pains of Monthly Menstruation, it completely relieves, while Nature's work is undisturbed. This is of great importance, as from this scourge dates most, if not all, wrecks to the Nervous System, and Chronic Female Complaints.

For Stomach, or Tape Worms, it is a sure remedy.

For children, when Teething, it completely soothes the pain, by diluting with milk and rubbing the Gums. When very severe give it in 5 to 10 drop doses in milk, and is a perfect relief.

HUNNEWELL'S ECLECTIC PILLS

HUNNEWELL'S

[illegible] PILLS.

This Valuable and Simple PILL rests for character on being the true type of a CATHARTIC—simple, though thorough in action, seldom requiring but a SINGLE PILL for a dose, or one at night and one at morning—acts without the least griping.

AND CURES

Dyspepsia,
Indigestion,
Billiousness,
Loss of Appetite,
Jaundice,
Humors, &c., &c.

For HEAD ACHE, when caused by a foul Stomach, they are a perfect relief.

For WORMS are a perfect remedy.

As a FAMILY PILL they have no superior.
